

The Women's Common Room at our institute serves as a dedicated space for relaxation, discussions, and study, fostering a supportive environment for female students and staff. It provides a comfortable area for socializing, academic collaboration, and personal breaks.